First Step has provided primary prevention education within the three local school districts: Coshocton City School District, Ridgewood School District, and River View Local School District since 1994. Primary prevention education has been administered in grades Kindergarten through 12th grades. Topics covered have been as follows:

Kindergarten – 3rd Grade: Bullying

4th – 6th Grade: Cyberbullying and Safety of Technology, Importance of Bystanders, Cliques, Diversity

7th – 8th Grade: Healthy Relationships and Sexting

9th – 10th Grade: Teen Dating Violence

11th – 12th Grade: Sexual Harassment

During the school year of 2013-2014, 4,285 unduplicated students received primary prevention education. This total accounts for 85% of the entire student enrollment within Coshocton City School District, Ridgewood School District, and River View Local School District. Primary prevention education topics were unduplicated from other local Coshocton County agencies.
