This Agreement is by and between The Heir Force Community School and The Ohio State University concerning the research project "Evaluating Win Everyday at Heir Force Academy." The Ohio State University shall provide the Institutional Review Board (IRB) review of this research project involving human subjects. The OSU researchers will make appropriate arrangements for the training of interview personnel on the protection of human subjects as it relates to The Heir Force Community School role in the Project.

The Heir Force Community School and its employees or agents involved in the Project shall adhere to the approved protocol and The Heir Force Community School remains responsible for promoting compliance by its investigators with the determinations of the OSU IRBs, with the terms of OSU's OHRP-approved Assurance and other applicable legal requirements, and with OSU human research protection program policies. The Heir Force Community School personnel shall all complete CITI training and the Social and Behavioral Research Human Research Courses. If any problems, concerns or questions arise in the field, or if there is any perceived ambiguity on the protocol, The Heir Force Community School shall contact the OSU researchers and ensure they are kept informed for the duration of the Project. Relevant subject complaints, serious and/or continuing non-compliance, IRB suspension or termination and unanticipated problems involving risks to subjects or others will be reported to the other party within 30 days of the incident. Relevant minutes of IRB meetings will be made available to The Heir Force Community School upon request.

Each party to this Agreement agrees that it will be responsible for its own acts and omissions and the results thereof, including any liability arising from such acts and omissions; and, each party shall not be responsible for the acts and omissions of the other party and the results thereof, including any liability arising from such acts and omissions.
