

AD

Life Coaching & Consulting's

D'Lois Noble is the Senior Consultant and President of AD Life Coaching and Consulting, Inc works with other non-profit and 501C3' businesses in our communities to improve people's lives by mobilizing the caring power of youth in their communities. This coalition has worked since 2006 to energize and inspire youth to make a difference – by advocating for issues important to our youth, taking a leadership role in advancing the Lord's work, and making personal financial commitments. Their goals are to develop a powerful voice for youth in community service and becoming an engine for growth by raising awareness and continuous education..

The Coalition has been charged with:

- Energizing and inspiring youth to make a difference.
- Energizing and inspiring local leaders to engage in activities that support youth's involvement in the new work of governor, mayor, etc.: task force, civic engagement and the development and investment of resources.
- Provide local examples of successful initiatives that increase youth's involvement in crafting local human care agendas that are in concert with their own community agenda and sports.
- Accelerating increases in the investments to these agendas by expanding and diversifying development efforts and supporting those of others.
- Recognizing all local initiatives, programs, societies, councils, or other efforts, that drive impact through the mobilization of the caring power of youth.
- Ensuring the consistency of the brand while allowing for localization.

Attributes of the Coalition include:

- Passion for AD Life Coaching & Consulting and Sports Elite CPA's mission and vision.
- Commitment to invest the time required to be an active member.
- Ability and desire to take a system-wide perspective.
- Personal financial commitment to the Projects.
- Willingness to ask others to invest in the Projects.